Application DENIED. Although the Court is sympathetic to Mr. Marley's difficulties pursuing his claims in light of both COVID-19 and his inexperience with the law, in light of the factors that the Court must consider when determining whether to grant an indigent litigant's request for pro bono representation — especially whether the claim is likely to be of substance or has a chance of success, see Hodge v. Police Officers, 802 F.2d 58, 61 (2d Cir. 1986) — the Court does not find that Mr. Marley's pending habeas petition merits the appointment of counsel. The Clerk of Court is respectfully directed to mail a copy of this order to Mr. Marley and to note the mailing on the docket.

SO ORDERED.
